LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Mitchell & Walker speak of two winners today.
 —Pray for immunity from serious mishap tomorrow.

—The Review will not appear Tuesday, it being a national holiday.
 —Now, boys, look out for your eyes and fingers when you handle the giant fire-cracker.

—Seventy-five tickets were sold at this station for the Big Four's Benton Harbor excursion Sunday.

—The postoffice will close July 4 at 10 a. m. for the day. The usual morning delivery will be made.

—The board of public works will not permit the use of fireworks or pistols on the island tomorrow.

—Do not forget that the stores, groceries and markets included, will be closed tomorrow all day. Buy today.

—The ladies of the Congregational church will run an excursion to Klinger Lake, Wednesday of next week.

—Mrs. Sheehan, mother of G. B. Sheehan of Goshen avenue, fell while walking in the yard of Mrs. Sheehan's home this morning and her right arm was broken near the wrist.

—A young man who called at a Marion street home Sunday evening is bemoaning the loss of a new hat, which he left on the veranda with the reach of the pet dog, while he went in the house.

—Attorney Chas. D. Waltz, formerly of Elkhart but now of Cincinnati, who since his leaving Elkhart has become prominent as an attorney for anti-strike movements, is in the city, having arrived Saturday night. He will remain but a day or two before returning home. His visit is to combine business with pleasure.

—One of Robbins & Swinehart's grocery delivery horses started up when left untied on Riverside, Saturday afternoon, and the top of the wagon was caught by a clothesline and the wagon considerably damaged, it being necessary to take it to a shop for repairs before it could resume service.

—Horton & Co.'s Fourth of July coupon contest closed Saturday night, with Howard Maxon winner of the first prize, which was five dollars worth of fireworks. Maxon turned in 2,781 coupons clipped from the daily newspapers. Louis Wilson with 2,192 coupons, was awarded second prize, two dollars and fifty cents worth of fireworks, and Otis Bullock, with 1,190 coupons, took the third prize, a dollar's worth of fireworks. The contest enlisted considerable interest among the young Americans, which is evidenced by the fact that nearly 15,000 coupons were turned in. The smallest number given in by any individual was fifty-two.

—The troublesome board walk along the hydraulic basin of Elkhart avenue between the Benton and Jackson street is again in a dangerous condition, according to Street Commissioner Williams' opinion, and he today recommended to the board of public works that it be torn out. It is the only walk along that portion of the avenue. A concrete walk has been ordered on the opposite side of the avenue, but pending action on the proposition now before the board to regain the twenty-six-foot strip that was vacated in the interests of the Elkhart Power Co. the preparations for building this walk have been suspended. The board met on the avenue with representatives of the Elkhart Electric Co. to confer regarding a walk this morning, but nothing definite was done, as Big Four representatives are also to be consulted.

—The board of public works is having certain kinds of catchbasins substituted by an old pattern that will catch the sand carried by the water in the gutter and prevent its passing into the sewer. These catchbasins are constructed of twenty-four-inch upright tiles, two to three being used according to the requirements indicated by the character of the soil, the outlet into the sewer being above these tiles. When they become filled they are emptied from above. The catchbasins removed are those which permit the sand to wash direct into the sewer from the street, the sewers being thus soon filled and rendered nearly if not quite useless. About seventy of this kind will be torn out. Those substituted cost about $7, and while the only effective alternative are patents costing from $25 to $35. The discarded "sand chutes" were put in prior to the regime of either Engineer Hitchcock or Beardsley.

—An incipient panic was quickly quelled in the South Side Evangelical chapel on Sunday evening, during exercises. When the very interesting program which had given pleasure to a large congregation was well advanced and a tableau was being presented some of the powder used to produce a colored light, slipped from a plate held by John Baker to the carpet, and the danger from fire greatly alarmed the more excitable ones in the audience, who jumped up and made for the door. In the meantime Mr. Baker and others fought energetically, almost desperately, to extinguish the flame, and were soon successful, while some near the point of danger shouted reassuringly, and a man at the door caught the cue and refused to permit those in the van to go out, thus soon restoring order, and the program proceeded. One of Mr. Baker's hands was severely scorched, and he left to attend to it.

—The board of public works today decided to grant the petition for the widening of Oakland avenue to sixty-six feet between Harrison street and the Lake Shore tracks. The improvement will take thirteen feet off the property on the east side for the entire distance, but on the west side only from Lafayette street to the railroad, the west line north of Lafayette being already properly placed. The benefits will be charged against the adjacent property, and nothing will be charged against the general city funds. The board approved the assessment roll for the vacation of an alley from Pacific street to the tail race of the Conn factory; only two persons are involved and the only charge is the legal expense, as the alley was never really opened although platted. Hearing on objections to the extension of Tyler avenue was postponed one week because the Lake Shore failed to have representatives at the meeting. The meeting of city department heads which regularly falls due the first Monday of the month was postponed until next Monday evening.

—A husky boy of seventeen gave a tramp, aged about forty-five, a deserved trouncing in the Lake Shore yard late Saturday afternoon, and the victim was glad enough to sneak away as quickly as possible as soon as the young valiant had ceased his pummeling. The boy was near his home on St. Joe or Hickory street when he heard screams from his ten-year-old sister, who was at home. He rushed to her aid, and beheld the tramp leaving the premises and hurrying toward the tracks. He followed, and with others overtook the fellow just east of Main street. The girl followed and identified the miscreant, who, with the group surrounding him, worked his way back as far as the car inspectors' building west of the station. Here Officer Stamp, who had been called, interposed as a lawful authority, and after hearing the stories of both sides, deemed it best to permit the fellow to go without attempt at prosecution. The brother started to follow the released culprit, but was called back by the officer. He apparently acquiesced, and circled around the station, was joined by a brakeman, and the two set out to overhaul the offender, who was overtaken near the old roundhouse, and the trouncing administered. The little girl said that the fellow applied for food, and when she replied that she could not comply because she was alone, he urged her to go with him to some nearby box cars. She indignantly refused and he threatened to "knock her head off" if she informed on him, and she then began to shout for help.

MORTUARY RECORD.

Mary, wife of Jacob Ebersole, died at her home, No. 1701 Morton avenue, at 9 p. m. Saturday, after an illness of only a day, being first stricken Friday night. An autopsy revealed internal hemorrhage as the cause. She was thirty-one years of age on October 18, last, and in addition to her husband leaves four children, the eldest eight years old and the youngest three. The funeral took place this afternoon, with services at the house at 2 o'clock.

Claus Anderson of No. 1100 Garfield avenue died of complications at 3:15 a. m. Sunday, aged fifty-one years. He is survived by his wife, Catherine, and six children. The funeral will be held Wednesday, friends meeting at the house at 2 p. m. and at the Swedish church at 2:30 o'clock.

The funeral of John H. Bay at Adamsville, Sunday, was one of the largest ever held at that place. Friends were present from points many miles distant, including a number from Elkhart, where the deceased resided.

Mrs. Frank (Lizzie) Willis of Columbus, O., formerly of South Bend, died on June 29, aged thirty. Eugene Smith, jr., of Baltimore, formerly of South Bend, died on June 30, aged nineteen.

Mrs. Frank (Mary) Halbert of near Shipshewana died on June 24, aged sixty-seven.

The Daily Review, 10 cents a week.

POLICE AND CRIMINAL NEWS.

John Dickerhoff and family, who reside in one-half of a double house at No. 503 Oakland avenue, were absent from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. Sunday, and on returning discovered that a thief had cut a screen window and ransacked the house, securing a pair of gold nose glasses. As this was all that was missed they did not intend to report the incident, but on discovering that the other side of the house, occupied by Mrs. Caroline Thomas and son, Mayo, who were out of the city, had also been thoroughly ransacked, they notified the police station, and Sergt. Rinehart responded. It was found that the thief had taken a bath in the Thomas apartments, using bowl and towel, and then made an entire change of clothing except shoes, substituting apparel belonging to Mrs. Thomas' son for his own seedy garments. The cast-off clothing was taken to the station by Sergt. Rinehart. Whether other valuables were taken from the Thomas rooms could not be ascertained until the return of the occupants.

Sometime between 1 and 4:30 p. m. Saturday a thief broke a panel in the rear door of Dr. S. M. Cummins' residence at No. 407 South Second street and ransacked various drawers and secured two nickel-plated savings banks containing between $35 and $50, and a Colt's automatic revolver. Whether other valuables were taken is not known to Dr. Cummins, but Mrs. Cummins, who went to Grand Haven, Mich., at noon Saturday to remain over the Fourth, may miss more when she returns. The doctor had gone home and prepared to retire in blissful ignorance of the raid, but at 9:20 p. m. was called by George VanFleet, who had heard indirectly through an iceman that the latter had discovered the broken door. An investigation then revealed evidences of a raid. The panel had been broken in order to reach the inside bolt, and it is believed the thief was informed as to conditions there.

Officer Pearce on Saturday night made peace more or less stable between a colored and a white family on Adeline avenue. He searched in vain for two negroes reported by Capt. Dotson of No. 2 fire station as having insulted women on the street. On Sunday night he dispersed noisy boys on South Main street and made a needless trip to a tented religious meeting on Indiana avenue for a similar purpose. On Saturday night Officer Withers dispersed boys who were shooting fireworks and disturbing the rest of guests at the Depot Hotel.

Officer Roth on Saturday night found C. E. Pancost's bicycle on Harrison street after its theft had been reported by the owner. John Frazer first reported the theft and then the recovery of his bicycle, Saturday night.

Frank Hood, colored, arrested by Sergt. Whiteman this forenoon for indecent exposure, was fined $10 and costs ($10) by Judge Raymer, and committed.

D. Gorton was assessed $11, Bert Fuller $10.10 and O. L. Wright $13 in Justice Foster's court for failure to pay dog tax.

Complaint is made that boys go in swimming in the Beardsley race too near the avenue and the nude.

RAILROAD NEWS.

R. T. Shea, general machinery inspector for the New York Central lines, was here today on an inspection tour, and left at 2:15 over the Big Four for Indianapolis. He expects to visit the local shops about once a month, and his duties take him to all shops owned by the Vanderbilt system. Master Mechanic Cross and Assistant Master Mechanic Chidley escorted him through the different departments of the local shops. There is hope that some new machinery will be apportioned to these works. Mr. Shea was much impressed with the lighting, ventilation and other facilities of the new roundhouses, and pronounced them the best lighted he had ever seen. He was gratified to find that the method used for cleaning the windows, a brush continually supplied with clear water by means of a hose attached to the handle, was in line with a recommendation he had made for cleaning coach windows at Buffalo, but which was not adopted. The idea was original with him, although already in use here.

The Lake Shore's order that engineers of the Century shall not make up more than ten minutes on any division, in case the train is late, is a disappointment to some of the ambitious engineers who have been hoping for an opportunity to beat existing records. But the traveling public at once realizes the excellent reasons for the limitation.

The Big Four's June appropriation for the shops at Wabash was exhausted by noon of the thirtieth, and the shops closed for the half-day. Similar conditions caused the closing of the Wabash shops at Fort Wayne from Friday noon to July 5.

Albert Reith of Dunlaps, who is attending Purdue University, has accepted a summer position with the Lake Shore in the civil engineering department.

The Big Four scale track is being repaired.

G. Vorhis, a boilermaker, slipped and fell while crawling under an engine Saturday evening, painfully cutting his right knee.

The Big Four will run a train out of Benton Harbor at 10 p. m. Tuesday to accommodate those who spend the Fourth there.

The northbound Big Four passenger train due at 12:37 p. m. was over an hour late today, because of extra traffic.

A piece of coal fell and struck H. W. Ghrist, a hostler, in the right eye Saturday, causing him much pain.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Meeting of Good Citizens' League at Trinity M. E. church tonight at 7:30.

The All Around Club will meet on Wednesday with Mrs. Benj. Monger of Beardsley avenue.

Mrs. Ella Miller of No. 909 South Second street will entertain the I. C. Circle on Wednesday.

A social for members only will follow the regular meeting of Starlight Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give an excursion to Klinger Lake and return on Wednesday, July 12, for the benefit of the church.

The Baptist Women's Union has suspended all meetings except the missionary meetings until September. The missionary meetings are held on the last Wednesday of each month.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Castle U. B. church will hold the regular monthly tea at the home of Mrs. Fred Pyle, No. 110 Kenyon avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Tea from 5:30. Ice cream and cake will also be served.

Louis Andresen is entertaining his brother, Conrad Andresen of Chicago, who is a Norwegian athlete of national reputation, and who possesses an array of medals won on the athletic field that would make a foreign major general envious. Louis Andresen himself very active in Norwegian athletic matters in Chicago before coming to Elkhart a couple of years ago.

Friday was the critical day in the case of Mrs. Ralph Wanner of Indianapolis, who underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor, and her mother, Mrs. George Wilkinson, wrote that she had passed it most satisfactorily.

Perhaps You Need It.

A Summer Tonic is a thing that a great many people need. Nothing answers the purpose as well as Pabst Malt Extract (the best tonic).

It is the concentrated liquid extract of malt and hops.

It will build up the nervous system—restore sound refreshing sleep—promote a good digestion.

It is a purely medicinal preparation, and is not sold as a beverage. Pleasant to take.

Price 25c per bottle.
