

WOMAN'S CROWNING GLORY"

Get Some Startling Effects by the Manner of Dressing Her Hair.

English stage beauty. It is the bobbed hair, without a single confining ribbon, bandeau or hairpin to restrain its suffiness!

In Paris Mlle. Josy Deminse, a foot-light favorite, has adopted a still more bizarre effect of bags, held in place by a broad bandeau, with a high topknot behind. The hair completely covers the forehead and touches the eyebrows.

On the other hand, Mlle. Joclyn, another favorite of the Parisian stage, has introduced a sty of hair dressing that aims at the utmost in simplicity. There are few faces that can stand the hair combed straight back from the forehead, but Mlle. Joclyn has adopted this style, and obtains a most striking appearance as a result.

HUNS WANT TO BE FREE

MANY GERMAN SOLDIERS WANTED TO BE FREED FROM PRELIMINARY

(By Associated Press) Paris, July 30.—The dangers of German treachery are being pointed out by the German press. According to a report by Esch, of 42 petitions to the Luxembourg Chamber of Deputies, 38 come from soldiers of whom it is stated as having been released, with acts of violence during the war. None of the petitions is signed, but the paper affirms would be changing his nationality if he were allowed to do so.

Reports from Switzerland indicate that German soldiers will not re-enter France unless they receive a Swiss citizenship message from the Swiss government. On the other day, fully one million German and Austrian soldiers on the border line of Switzerland and Austria were kept in the hands of the Swiss government, but the Swiss are keeping a strict watch on the would-be immigrants.

Last Day for 2-Cent Cards;

Have you any two-cent or three-cent stamps left at your home? If you get 'em out and take them to Littrell's postoffice, you're gointa be o'kay. Tomorrow, July 31st, is the last day on which two-cent stamps will be received for cards and envelopes. After that time, only one-cent stamps will be accepted. The stamps must be in good condition and every local stock of either one-cent or two-cent stamps should be used before the close of the day. On July 1st, the rates of two-cent stamps were changed to one cent for the first time. It is thought that there will be a large number of two-cent stamps on hand.

Newly Married Couple Employed

Fifty New York employees last night were given a party by their fellow workers. Laughlin, that he had entered the ranks, giving him a gratuity drawn by two million dollars in junk, attached to a couple of horns. The bystanders also were given a party by Laughlin, that he had entered the ranks, giving him a gratuity drawn by two million dollars in junk, attached to a couple of horns. The bystanders also were given a party by Laughlin, that he had entered the ranks, giving him a gratuity drawn by two million dollars in junk, attached to a couple of horns.

—Aaron Felthouse has some splendid property and farm property you will find an excellent investment.

LABORER DIES OF APOPLEXY

GEORGE A. MINARD, GRAVE DIGGER AT GRACE LAWN, IS FATALITY STRICKEN.

George Albert Minard, age 66 years, who for several months had been employed as a laborer digging graves in Grace Lawn cemetery, died at the General hospital early yesterday morning following an apoplectic stroke, which he suffered at 6:30 o'clock Monday night.

Mr. Minard was stricken in his apartments over 315 Main street at 6:30 o'clock Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Mitterling, other tenants on the floor, who entered his rooms upon finding smoke emanating from his door, found Mr. Minard lying prostrate on the floor near an oil stove on which he was cooking his supper. It was the smoke from the burning food-stuffs that had attracted the attention of the Mitterlings. Mr. Minard was hurried to the General hospital in the Walley ambulance, but did not recover consciousness.

The deceased was 66 years of age. Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Mary Hayden of Detroit, who arrived here this morning and made the funeral arrangements; Mrs. Martha Fribble of Middlebury and Mrs. Fidell Peoples of Marion, Iowa. There also survive two sons by his first wife, Bert Minard and Hiram Minard, both of this city. The first wife, Mrs. Emma Minard resides at 230 North Second street. The present whereabouts of the second wife are unknown.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow forenoon at the C. Edwin Walley chapel. Jay Palmer of the Sycamore mission will officiate. Interment will be made in the Rice cemetery.

Walter Mrs. Elsie The next 12.

the First a wienie w Creek. ent and games.

with Miss last evening. ng after e served.

on street s of the er home ning was rial time. Memphis. om, was si Hepta home of a street, as spent ents were again in an Wind.

the main motor cor- pper last Mr. and ton lake. the chief trip was art cars. the coma Moving a motion ged at 8 the St. a church xhibition spices of No ad, but a in the United States. He has been in services about two years in the Engineers' corps and overseas several months. He is now stationed at Camp Sherman.

Mrs. Pearl Hardman of 227 South Fifth street returned yesterday from a week's visit in Dayton, Ohio.

Mrs. Peter Bickle of Bristol, Ind., was in the city yesterday visiting friends.

Donald Goodrich will leave today on a business trip after spending a short time in the city with relatives.

Miss Wilma Sechler of Milford, formerly employed in the Sonora shop is the guest of friends in the city. She will remain until tomorrow.

Arthur Zigler, of North Second street returned home from Ann Arbor this morning where he has been attending school. He was accompanied by his room-mate, Willis Blakslee of Quincy, Ill., who will remain several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fishley and two daughters of 702 Bower street left Monday for a motor trip to North Dakota. They will be gone three weeks.

Mrs. Harry Hand of Detroit who has been in the city since Saturday visiting her husband, car distributor in the Michigan division offices here, returned home yesterday.

Miss Gertrude Heald of Laporte is visiting the family of O. C. SeEVERS, 408 Jackson place.

Miss Cora Olson of the W. F. Stanton company left this morning for New York where she will remain two weeks on a buying trip in interest of the firm and will select both the fall and winter styles. Miss Mable Troop, book-keeper, will accompany Miss Olson and spent the two weeks on a pleasure trip.

Miss Orpha Houseman has accepted a position in the lace department of the H. B. Sykes' store.

A son was born yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gary, 145 State street.