

SOCIETY and PERSONAL

Industrial Committee Meets.

The Industrial committee of the Y. W. C. A. met last evening with Miss Irene J. Paul, extension secretary of the association, and discussed several important questions, among them being a vacation camp for the Industrial department and the advisability of sending delegates from the various at each plate, and a large silk flag was hung against the curtains in the dining room. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in viewing the curios collected by the hostess. The guests were Mrs. Charles Mowery of Cleveland, Mrs. Frank Burhans, Mrs. Ada Kenyon, and the Misses Catherine Bartlett, Vera Silvers, Mary Hanske, Martina Burhans, Georgia Banta, Una daish on Middlebury street. Twenty members were present. The club will meet in two weeks with Miss Marie McLaughlin of 809 Prairie street.

Entertains Bridge Club.

Mrs. Allen Houseworth of 115 South Second street is entertaining eight members of a bridge club this after-one week ago, is now confined to his bed by tonsillitis.

Miss Lula Brandt, who is employed in the commercial department of the Commercial and National bank, Chicago, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brandt of 815 Harrison street.

The condition of Mrs. Paul Burkholder of 213 Water street, who has been seriously ill for some time, remains the same.

Mrs. J. L. Butler, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, left for that city yesterday after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Dennis Stiffler of 320 Hickory street. Mr. and Mrs.

Zipser, who is taking a business administration course at DePaul university. Mr. Zook displayed great aptitude for drawing while a High school student, and produced some of the best cartoons ever published in The Pennant.

Miss Orpah Hausman will leave her position at the H. B. Sykes store tomorrow to become switchboard operator at the Sidway Mercantile company. Miss Mary Jackson, the present operator, will resign the latter part of this week to take up a course in music at Valparaiso university.

Raymond Stemm, son of Mrs. C. W. Stemm of 801 Pleasant street, is