Wedding Date Revealed

At a pretty party given last evening at the home of Mrs. Marie Ekstrom of 902 Mason street, October 21, was revealed as the date of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ellen Marie Ekstrom, to Levi D. Tyson of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tyson of Wakarusa. The guests were 22 members of the F. C. G.'s of the Swedish Lutheran church. The secret was "let out" by Miss Nellie Esberg, in a contest in which the guests were asked to piece a number of letters and figures together, which when completed formed the names of the principals and the date. Miss Esberg was the first to match the slips. Games and music formed the remainder of the amusement for the evening, following which the hostess served a dainty two-course luncheon. Concealed in the napkins, which were suggestive of the occasion, were tiny cards on which were pasted heart-shaped pictures of the affianced couple. Mr. Tyson is foreman of the drafting department at the Foster Machine Co.'s plant and Miss Ekstrom is a department manager at the H. B. Sykes store.

Enjoy Outing at Lake.

Yesterday the members of the Nonpareil club enjoyed an outing at the Simonton lake cottage of Mrs. John Pollard. At noon a picnic dinner was served. The afternoon was devoted to fancy work and a general good time. The club members planned to have a 6 o'clock picnic supper this evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Seiler, 685 Strong avenue, in compliment to Rev. and Mrs. R. I. Wade.
