

al

or Graduates.
 ss. or "Midd-
 nial hospital.
 mbers of the guests at din-
 Doctors' room
 honor of the
 el was toast-
 talks were
 McDonald, Miss
 Koehler, Miss
 Leta Smith,
 s Lucile Wil-
 rry. The din-
 junior nurses.
 class colors,
 color scheme,
 adorning the
 a pleasing vo-
 by Mrs. Reno
 ing readings
 ane Shanower
 number was
 -Martin. The
 ll be held at
 in the muni-
 ublic is invited.

Exhibition.
 n of children's hool was held
 evening when
 ved the work
 rogram includ-
 esented by the
 at 7:30 Friday
 nd United ne form of a nnection with
 will be held
 the Beardsley
 tion. Mrs. A.
 n of the pro-
 H. Compton,
 rk committee,
 a, chairman of
 ittee. An ad-
 ill be charged
 t-Teacher fund

ld Social.
 or of St. Paul's
 ing with Glenn
 Michigan street
 a roast on Wed-
 week and also
 l the date for
 . The proceeds applied on the
 as made to the

ass Picnic
 of the boys of
 church were
 c by the Theo-
 they motored to
 miles west of
 iver road, for a 0 were present
 played.

Delegate.
 the Stationery America has its delegate to tor, for an elaborate recital by her pupils at Trinity Methodist church next Friday evening, starting at 8 o'clock. Miss Aline Webster will sing and Miss Catherine Bower will read.

‡ ‡ ‡

Entertains at Birthday Party.

Master Bennie Nolan was host to 20 girls and boys in honor of his sixth birthday anniversary. Various games provided entertainment. A large cake bore six candles. The host received many gifts. Mrs. Nolan was assisted in serving refreshments by her mother, Mrs. G. A. Troupe.

‡ ‡ ‡

Weston School Exhibit.

Between 400 and 500 people visited the Weston school exhibit of art and other work last evening, when a short program was presented by the children's band of Rooms 1 and 2. Various articles of especial interest were on display, including sewing and embroidery done by the children and a rug woven by the sixth grade pupils on a loom of Room 6. About $40 was cleared by the Parent-Teacher association for the playground equipment and other needs of the school.

‡ ‡ ‡

To Give Artist's Recital.

Miss Sylvia Bargmann of Chicago, pianist, will give an artist's recital for the Matinee Musicale at 3 o'clock on Wednesday, June 8, in the Y. W. C. A. building. Miss Bargmann was the accompanist for Mrs. Lucille Meghan Wynkoop, who sang here last Tuesday evening.

To all active members of the Matinee Musicale the Atherton club has presented complimentary tickets for the banjo recital by Farland at the club next Saturday evening.

‡ ‡ ‡

Entertain At Party.

The Misses Selma and Dora Marjason of 1923 Lane avenue were hostesses last evening to 15 guests—employees of the Indiana and Michigan Electric Co.'s office—in honor of Mrs. Fern Wood, who was recently married, and the Misses Florence Peters and Beryl Lauby, who are to soon be married. A picnic supper was served. Besides the guests of honor was Mrs. Robert Collins. A mock marriage provided entertainment for the party.

‡ ‡ ‡

Club Plans Picnic.

Eight members of the T. N. T. club and a guest, Miss Leona Mayer, were pleasantly entertained last evening at the home of Miss Clara Johnson of 924 Pearl street, where plans were made of a picnic supper to be held Thursday evening at McNaughton park. In a flower contest the honors were awarded to Miss Orpha Hausman. Light refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Miss Zelma Kobernick of 919 Blaine avenue.

‡ ‡ ‡

Birthday Surprise.

Mrs. Joseph VanTuyl of 308 East Lexington avenue was pleasantly surprised Sunday by forty relatives and friends, in honor of her birthday. Thirty of the guests were from points outside the city. A picnic dinner was served.

‡ ‡ ‡

Birthday Surprise.

