

Society and Personal

WEIS-GUTERMUTH.

Miss Louise Weis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weis, who live six miles west of Elkhart, and Russell Gutermuth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gutermuth of 152 State street, were married at 8 o'clock last evening in the parsonage of St. Peter's Lutheran church in Mishawaka by Rev. Otto Turk. The young couple was attended by Miss Alysia Weis, sister of the bride, and Clinton Gutermuth, brother of the bridegroom. The bride was attired in a navy-velvet dress with hat to match. The bridesmaid was simply dressed, and both carried bouquets of pink roses. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gutermuth left in an automobile for Chicago and other western points. They will be at home after June 21 at their newly-furnished house at 195 Melcher avenue. Mrs. Gutermuth was employed by the Casnard Corset Co. while Mr. Gutermuth is employed as a clerk in the Keane Knitwear Shop.

NICHOLS-ANDERSEN

Miss Beulah Helen Nichols, daughter of Mrs. Elmer Hees of 1318 Maple Row and Paul Andrew Andersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Andersen of 1128 Cassopolis street, were married at 8 o'clock this morning at the Church of Christ by Rev. T. H. Adams in the presence of the immediate families. They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Ronger and Charles Tompkins.

The bride wore a white georgette dress with hat to match, and carried white roses. The maid of honor wore pink organdy and a corsage bouquet of pink rose buds.

Mr. and Mrs. Andersen left immediately after the ceremony for a stay at a lake near Elkhart and later will go to Chicago. They will be at home after July 5 at 119 Brady street.

Mr. Anderson is a draftsman for the Bridge & Iron Co. His bride has been an employe of the Dr. Miles Medical Co.

MCREE-TRAINER.

Miss Pearl McBee of 709 Gladstone avenue, daughter of Mrs. Nancy Sager of Goshen, and Martin Trainer, son of Peter Trainer of Goshen, were married last Sunday in the parsonage of the First Brethren church in Goshen by Rev. Mr. McClintock. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Maloney of Goshen. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served by Mr. Trainer's brothers and sisters at his home on Ninth street. Mr. and Mrs. Trainer will reside in Goshen, where Mr. Trainer is employed by the city.

LAKE-MICHAEL.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Lake, daughter of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lake of Warsaw to Lyle J. Michael of Bryan, Ohio, is to take place next Friday at Westerville, Ohio. The bride is a graduate of the Elkhart High school, the family living here during the latter days of her public school career. Mr. Lake was pastor of Castle were from Elkhart and three from Goshen. Light refreshments were served after the meeting last night. A meeting will be held next Tuesday night to confer the second rank on eight pages.

PRETTY LAWN PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorpe pleasantly entertained the members of the L. L. club and their husbands, with three other guests—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hummel of this city, and Miss Mae Eleton of Chicago—last evening at a lawn party in their home, 928 Monroe street, in honor of Mr. Thorpe's birthday. The yard was attractively decorated with flowers and varied colored electric lamps, the club colors, blue and gold predominating. Richard Goldsworthy in behalf of the crowd, presented Mr. Thorpe a gold cigar case. At dinner the honors were awarded to Mrs. Harry Hummel, Mrs. Marion Hatfield, Harry Hummel and Leonard Baron. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Eleton, in serving a luncheon in three courses.

Members To Attend Big Meet.

Mrs. Lillian Horn, Mrs. Pearl Robinson and Mrs. Arctura Cooper, of the Protected Home Circle will leave next Sunday evening for Buffalo, N. Y., to attend a meeting of the Supreme Circle. By accomplishing special work these members have qualified to make this trip. Twenty-five members were present at the regular meeting last evening, at which time plans were made for a pot-luck supper to be held in two weeks, when an election of officers will also take place.

J. Club Entertained.

Mrs. Ralph Ganger of 129 Middlebury street pleasantly entertained 21 members of the J. club last evening, assisted by the Misses Bernadette and Colette Maskins. In a contest the honors were awarded to Mrs. Nell Rohrer. The members presented little Bernard Adam Ganger several pretty gifts. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. In two weeks Miss Mary Nye will entertain at her home, 117 Pacific street.

Elkhart Hive, Maccabees.

Twenty-five members of the Elkhart Hive, Maccabees, were present at a regular meeting last evening at which two applications were presented, two balloted upon and two persons obligated. A special meeting will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Carrie Cole, 436 South Second street. All members are urged to attend the meeting in South Bend tomorrow. A chartered car will leave the station at 12:57, immediately preceding the 1 o'clock car.

To Celebrate Anniversary of Post.

At a well-attended meeting of Shiloh-Field Women's Relief corps, arrangements were made for the 35th anniversary meeting of the Shiloh-Field post on June 25, when a banquet will be served by the corps at 6 o'clock in the hall on East Franklin street. A Castle United Brethren church will meet at 3:30 tomorrow for a regular business meeting. A large attendance is desired as officers will be elected.

L. A. G. B. of R. T. will meet at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening in the K. of P. hall. All officers and members are requested to attend to drap the charter in memory of Mrs. Vada Scott, who died recently.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Oakland Avenue Evangelical church will meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow with Mrs. David Harlow of 675 West Indiana avenue.

A committee of the W. O. W., composed of three members, each, from Laporte, South Bend, Lydick, Mishawaka, Goshen, Plymouth, Mishawaka and Elkhart—will meet Friday evening in the Moose hall to make arrangements for an Interurban Athletic Association meeting to be held in July. A smoker will follow the session.

The Amicea Ferac society will join in a picnic supper at McNaughton park tomorrow evening.

The Congregational Women's society will meet next Friday with Rev. and Mrs. A. U. Ogilvie of 313 Crawford street. Members will meet at 3 o'clock for sewing, and at 6 o'clock a picnic supper will be served on the lawn to all members, their families and friends. At this time a Nature day program will be presented.

The Portnightly club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. V. W. Steiner of 206 West Indiana avenue.

The Daughters of Veterans will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the American Legion home to tie a comforter for the soldier's home at Lafayette. As a picnic dinner will be served at noon, each member is requested to bring the necessary articles.

The Weyrich reunion will be held at John C. Staut's home five miles southeast of Milford, next Saturday. All relatives are invited. The Winona car that leaves Goshen at 8:30 a. m. will be met at Maple Grove stop.

The Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Sewing Circle will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Mary Shaw at 6174 South Main street.

The Order of the Royal Circle of Friends of the World will present a free entertainment next Saturday evening at the home of J. B. Slater, 351 St. Joe street. The public is invited.

PERSONAL

T. H. Curtis of 2513 Morton avenue, who suffered a stroke of paralysis last Saturday, shortly after returning from Fairfield, Ohio, where he attended the funeral of his brother, Lorenzo Curtis, is in a critical condition, having been unconscious for the last three days.

Walter Bullock of Chicago, formerly of Elkhart, graduated yesterday from the University of Chicago for the commerce and administration course. He has now accepted a post